DAILY RECORD

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 1873.

LOCAL ITEMS.

Caught in the Act. it will be remembered by the readers of the Recond that about a month ago a polls pros. was entered in the case of Jon. L. Jacobs, who came before the District indicted for forgery. This result was obtained through the influence of his friends, and parents, who are respectable people. About the same time W. H. Thatcher, who had been held in jail on two indictments for forgery, was bailed out, and his case was continued. There two individuals, with another-a petty thief-made a plan to leave this cruel town, and go to some more genial clime.

Uniuckily the third party committed some trivial offense and was detained by the officials of the county. One week ago last Tuesday, Jacobs hired, from Geo. C. Johnston's livery stable, a horse with which to go to Bullionville. He returned the same day. On the following Thursday he again procured a horse from the same place to go to Bullionville on pretence of having some business there connected with the great mining trial now going on in the District Court. Arriving at Bullionville he borrowed a pistol from McDermott, a saloon-keeper in that place, saying that, as he was going down the Meadow Valley Wash to subpcua some witnesses, he would probably have an apportunity during the trip (which would take several days), to shoot some game. He left the same day, and in the evening arrived at Newman's ranch, sixteen miles down some trivial offense and was detained by at Newman's ranch, sixteen miles down the valley from Bullionville, where, by appointment, be met Thatcher. There they remained until last Monday.

Meanwhile, Johnston being informed of this, procured a warrant for his (Jacobs) arrest, which was put into the hands of officer David James. James arrived at Newman's on Wednesday last, and found that the fugitives had left that place on Monday, bound for San Juan. But he could obtain no information as to the route they had taken. On Thursday he returned to town, but having busi-ness at Nowman's, he went down again the same day. He beard that the two men were in the vicinity, and proceeded to Appleruhita's, about four miles below Newman's. He knew that they had not passed that place, and expected them to go by during that night. Therefore, in-stead of sleeping in the house, he made his preparations to pass the night in a hay-stack near it, in order that he might efter hear the passing runaways.

Just as James was about to go to bed he heard the tramp of approaching herses, and looking out he saw his man, in company with Thatcher, going past. They had made their final prepar-ations and were at last well started on the journey to the new El Develo on the journey to the new Ei Dorado. He immediately summoned another man from the house, and having saddled a couple of mules, they followed in the track of the travelers. About a mile below the ranch Jacobs and Thatcher had halfed to enter the reservoir and the ranch Jacobs and Thatcher had halfed to enter the reservoir the ranch Jacobs and Thatcher had haited to re-arrange the pack upon a mule which they were driving. Here the mule which they were driving. Here the parsuers came up with them, and by James' direction, his companion hailed them, and asked whither they were bound. "To Arizona," was the reply. James then came forward and covered Jacobs with a shot-gun, whilst his companion, tacitly requested Thatcher to look into a muzzle of a pistol. They then disarmed Jacobs, and, as the officer had no warrant to arrest Thatcher, he assisted that gontleman to repeach his thed disarrined Jacobs, and, as the office; he had no warrant to arrest Thatcher, he assisted that gentleman to repack his mule and sent him on his way rejoicing. It may here be remarked that his bondsmen are not rejoicing as much over the fact as he was then, for as a matter of course, they will have to enrich the County Treasury and lessen next year's tax-s in the sum for which the bond was Officer James returned with his prisoner to Proche, arriving here at 5 o'clock vesterday morning, and giving Jacobs into the custody of the jailor. He will await in jail on a charge of grand larceny until the action of the next Grand Jury, whilst his late traveling companion will populity journey on to the golden moun-

Meagher Guard marched through the streets to the sound of martial music. The line of march was from Armory Hall up Meadow Valley street, and through Cedar to Main, down Main to brough Cedar to Main, down Main to Lacour, down Lacour to Pioche, thence through past the Water Company's office to Main, up Main to Meadow Valley, and up Meadow Valley, and up Meadow Valley, and up Meadow Valley to the Armory, where they disbanded for the day. In the evening the military step was changed to the light tripping movements of the dance. At the hour at which our reporter visited the hall, all was gavety. visited the hall, all was gayety er visited the hall, all was gayer.
May the Meagher Guard give many more such parties while peace continues, and may it be warthy of the name it bears in the hour of need.

YESTERDAY afternoon, while passing the building on Main street, formerly used as the Record office, we dropped in for a moment, and beheld the room well filled with pupils of the Pioche public school, presided over by E. Schopp-mann, County Surveyor. He has under mann, County Surveyor. He has under his charge about 50 pupils, all of whom are under good discipline and are mak-ing fair progress. Mr. S. has been in charge but a short time, so that the classes are not yet graded. As soon as he shall have had time to put his house in order was will again visit the school in order we will again visit the school and give it a more extended notice.

ARRIVED .- A new and powerful locomotive belonging to the Nevada Central Railroad Company, arrived yesterday morning from Tosno, and was at once forwarded to Bullionville, where Super-intendent Nesbitt will employ a large gang of men to adjust and put the fin-ishing touches on it. We are informed that it will be completed and in running order by Monday.

BELLA BIRD'S BESEFIT .- The performance for the benefit of Mrs. Bird, at Brown's Hall, takes place this evening. The entertainment will be a pleasing vathe entertainment will be a pleasing variety of comedy, music and recitations. Play-goers may expect an evening of pleasure. The box office will be open at the Hall at 12 o'clock to-day, and seats may be engaged at any hour after that until evening.

THE BALL AT BULLIONVILLE. The Bullionville ball, an advertisement of which appears under the proper head this morning, promises to be a grand success. The parties at the Meadow Valley Hotel have always been well spoken of, and this one will, no doubt, be as well conducted, and as much en-joyed, as those heretofore given.

JOSEPH THOMAS.-It is now though possible that Thomas, who was lately shot in the back, may recover. There is a hope that his spinal column has not been seriously injured, and, such being the case, he may be cured. Yesterday the symptoms were very favorable.

the symptoms were very favorable.

Salt Larg Stack.—On and after this day a stage will leave Pioche every alternate day for the accommodation of passengers. The mails and express matternate. teruate day for the accommodation of passengers. The mails and express mat-ter will be dispatched daily, as hereto-fore.

No passengers will arrive from Hamilton by this evening's stage. A disputch to the RECORD says that the stage left that place yesterday evening at 6:30. It will, therefore, probably arrive here later in the evening than usual.

SAMUEL P. Duzan is the correct name of the new superintendent of the Chief East Extension and Caroline mines. Yesterday it was misprinted "Dugan," Tux item in yesterday's issue with regard to the superintendency of the Newark was the result of an incorrect statement made to our reporter. THE Meagher Guard presented quite a brilliant appearance whilst marching through the streets yesterday.

The weather was pleasant yesterday, with no indications of snow or rain.
